MEMORANDUM FOR

STAT

Executive Secretary
Central Intelligence Agency

SUBJECT: Points of Contact for Intelligence Matters

The National Security Council has undergone a recent reorganization. Judge Clark has named Kenneth E. deGraffenreid as NSC Director of Intelligence Programs and Paul B. Thompson as Staff Legal Counsel and Deputy Director of Legislative Affairs. Mr. deGraffenreid will serve as our point of contact for all intelligence matters directed to the President, Judge Clark, and the NSC Staff. Commander Thompson, in addition to other legal and legislative duties, will be our primary staff officer for security matters.

The Intelligence Directorate, headed by Mr. deGraffenreid, will be responsible for dissemination of all sensitive compartmented information and other sensitive intelligence material sent to the NSC, and for dealing with all compartmented and special access intelligence programs. Commander Thompson will be the point of contact for clearances involving these and other programs.

In order to improve security procedures for SCI, please send all compartmented intelligence documents to the Intelligence Directorate, via the NSC Secretariat, Room 381, Old Executive Office Building, Washington, D.C. 20506. The Intelligence Directorate telephone number is 395-3334, and the office may be reached on the secure telephone through the White House secure switchboard. Commander Thompson's telephone number is 395-3046.

Please provide the name of your point of contact for control and distribution of SCI and other sensitive intelligence information to the Intelligence Directorate. You may direct any questions concerning these procedures to the Intelligence Directorate.
